

The Call of the Drums

Call of the Drums is my personal approach to shower Love, Light and Laughter into our world. Besides Concerts, Drum Circles and Trance-Dance events I offer Shamanic retreats, individual sessions and a training for Shamanic Ritual.

I emphasize very much on Live Music in my events. Not only because I am a musician. but for the quality that live music brings to any situation. It is uplifting and energizing and excites our natural ability for Ecstasy. Music, movement and dance are able to unleash the full potential of our human „incarnation“.

Together with various co-musicians my approach is to create a special energy field for people to move and to get in touch with their „deeper levels“.

My name is Rishi. I am a German born multi-instrumentalist, music producer and workshop facilitator. I perform with world music artists like Hamsafar, Prem Joshua, Milarepa, Rishi & Harshil, Rishi & Dhvani and various other musical projects.

I teach shamanic rituals and facilitate drum events and workshops. During the many years as a drummer I have expanded my contemporary drum kit to quite a unique range of world percussion instruments.

In my spiritual quest I met Osho and Frank Natale which inspired me to integrate live music with meditation and shamanic ritual.

About me

TranceDance

How does your body feel from inside...

when you dance with closed eyes? What informations are revealed, when you let go of control and follow the spontaneous impulses and let yourself be „danced“ in a space full of music, sounds, voices and rhythm...

TranceDance is an ancient spiritual practice - energizing, inspiring, expressive and fun. A dynamic mix of percussive rhythms, enchanting sounds, transformative breathing and the use of a blindfold are the tools to open doorways to healing, clearing and guidance.

Dancing as an inner journey to invite and reconnect to the qualities and wisdom of our soul, Mother Nature and the spiritual realms.

A variation of my instrument setup

Live music is an essential ingredient to our retreats and events. The impact and quality of live played instruments is a powerful support for the participants to be fully present and to emerge into the Trance - an enhanced state of awareness.

In Dance we connect spiritual and material world through our body and heart, thus re-open channels to our deepest layers of memories. Letting the body move on it's own and expressing emotions in dance, enables us to heal old wounds and traumas on a direct cellular level, gain clarity and direction and resolve old conflicts.

Ceremonies and Rituals help to unify our individual energies. We create a sacred space of trust and security for every participant. Joining our forces in a ceremony generates a strong energetic momentum for every participant. Rituals enhance the process and supports every participants sense for trust, courage and belonging.

Dance your way to Freedom

Healing Sound Bath

Healing Sound Bath - an invitation to relax and dissolve in our sound pool - opening all the senses to allow the sound waves of our instruments and voices to enter through all layers, taking you onto a healing journey also called as Dreamtime journey

Shamanic Journey - connecting to the soul

Spontaneously created Live Music transports you into the Here & Now and enables your body to resonate with the harmonious vibrations of our Sound Bath of voices and sonically enhanced instruments, which generate full, rich, clear sound waves and harmonic overtones, which work on all physical and energetic levels - creating stimulating vibrations to support deep relaxation up to the cellular level.

Shamanic Retreats

Shamanic Ritual Retreats give you time to re-connect to the sacred space inside yourself. In ceremonial healing rituals, we take time out from everyday life and touch down to another reality of meditation and dance, heartfelt encounter, mindful action and playful creativity to recharge and get energized, heal old wounds, reorientate and meet new friends.

Active and passive Rituals and Meditations help you to dive into and express the deepest levels of your soul and truth. Remember your purpose and get inspiration and motivation to try new techniques, allowing you to step out of your daily routine.

A lifechanging experience...
